A-Level Testing for Academic Year 2023

On March 18-20, 2023, there will be A-Level testing which is an integral part of applying for Chiang Mai University's undergraduate programs. Those who have applied for the A-Level can check their testing schedule and location on <https://www.mycas.com/>.

Allowed into the test rooms are:

- 1-3 pencils (mechanical pencils are not allowed)
- Eraser with no sleeve (both paper and plastic)
- A mask for spare
- An analog watch

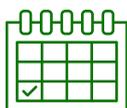

How to Know if a Grade of I is Successfully Granted?

- A grade of I is granted when the student's request receives approval from both the instructor/the course coordinator(s) and the dean of the faculty to which the course belongs.

Requesting for requesting I Grade Guideline

- Students may follow up on their I Grade request on the Registration Systems or directly ask the instructor/the course coordinator(s) and the faculty.

Semester 2/2022 Final Examination Schedules

Chiang Mai University has announced the final examination schedules, which is between March 20 and April 2, 2023. Good luck preparing for the exams!
